JP Colin Design is a self-preserving effort on the part of JP Colin and KL Colin. Art has been a source of inspiration for KL Colin and a vital source of salvation for JP Colin. Both artists have been diagnosed with severe mental health issues, and both artists have used art as a for good in their lives. JP Colin was diagnosed with Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder related to his military service. KL Colin was diagnosed with Bipolar Disorder with comorbidities.

The JP Colin Design website is meant to be a source of basic information about both JP Colin and KL Colin—as they are the substance of JP Colin Design. The site was designed in a minimalist manner to make it easy to navigate. It was not meant to be exhaustive.

The site mainly contains the artistic creations of JP Colin as KL Colin largely creates graphic design elements for both merchandise and to supplement our other business efforts. JP Colin is a Visual Artist, Writer, Educator, Journalist, and Business Developer. He is a millionth-year senior in both Studio Art and Creative Writing at a public university in New Mexico.
